This Morning in Worship

"Majestic"
 "Love the Lord"
 "Man of Sorrows"
 "O Come to the Altar"

Message

Ben Edfeldt

We usually stand to sing during worship. If you need to be seated, please feel free to do so; we understand. Whether seated or standing, may we all continue to focus our hearts and minds on our great God in worship.

Welcome, Ben Edfeldt

In our pastor's absence (vacation) today, Ben Edfeldt will bring the message. Ben has been the Director of the Baptist Student Ministry at Midwestern State University for the past 11 years. Ben and his wife Beth have been married for almost 14 years. They have two children: Tucker is 9 and Libby is 7. He has a Bachelor's degree in Religious Studies from Shorter University in Rome, GA, and a Master's in Divinity from Beeson Divinity School in Birmingham, AL.

October Scripture Memory

Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

-- Ephesians 5:15-17 (ESV)

Preparation for Worship

But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

—Galatians 6:14 (ESV)

"Life is wasted if we do not grasp the glory of the cross, cherish it for the treasure that it is, and cleave to it as the highest price of every pleasure and the deepest comfort in every pain. What was once foolishness to us—a crucified God—must become our wisdom and our power and our only boast in this world."

—John Piper

Hymn: "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross"

*When I survey the wondrous cross
 On which the Prince of Glory died,
 My richest gain I count but loss
 And pour contempt on all my pride.*

*Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
 Save in the death of Christ, my Lord.
 All the vain things that charm me most
 I sacrifice them to his blood.*

*See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
 Sorrow and love flow mingled down:
 Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
 Or thorns compose so rich a crown?*

*Were the whole realm of nature mine,
 That were a present far too small;
 Love so amazing, so divine,
 Demands my soul, my life, my all.*
