Message "A Guide Through Difficult Times" Pastor Bill Liggett
 2 Timothy 3:1-13

We usually stand to sing during worship. If you need to be seated, please feel free to do so; we understand. Whether seated or standing, may we all continue to focus our hearts and minds on our great God in worship.

August Scripture Memory

Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings.
 — Psalm 17:8 (ESV)

Preparation for Worship

Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name; worship the LORD in holy splendor.
 — Psalm 29:2

"To worship the LORD is — in the world's eyes — a waste of time. It is, indeed, a royal waste of time, but a waste nonetheless. By engaging in it, we don't accomplish anything useful in our society's terms.

Worship ought not be construed in a utilitarian way. Its purpose is not to gain numbers nor for our churches to be seen as successful. Rather, the entire reason for our worship is that God deserves it. Moreover, it isn't even useful for earning points with God, for what we do in worship won't change one whit how God feels about us. We will always still be helpless sinners caught in our endless inability to be what we should be or to make ourselves better — and God will always still be merciful, compassionate, and gracious, abounding in steadfast love and ready to forgive us as we come to him.

... The churches' worship provides opportunities for us to enjoy God's presence in corporate ways that take us out of time and into the eternal purposes of God's kingdom. As a result, we shall be changed — but not because of anything we do. God, on whom we are centered and to whom we submit, will transform us by his Revelation of himself."

— Marva Dawn,
 A Royal "Waste" of Time
